

CONN., 7. STAR. VI
CONNECTICUT

Tolland (7)

Stafford Springs Vicinity: 95
(West Stafford)

* (132p
67d

State

County

Town or Vicinity

Bradway, Charles P., Machine Works (CONN-280)

Structure

Approx. 100' S. of State Rte. 190, approx. 0.3 mi. W. of intersection with Cooper Lane Rd. Frame with clapboarding, approx. 68' x 47' with small extentions, two stories with lean-to, low pitched gable roof. Original building early or mid-19th C; addition before 1889; occupied by the Bradway firm in 1889; early 20th C. additions. Particularly notable for late 19th C. machinery. 9 sheets (1965, including plot plans, plans, reflected ceiling plans, ele-

FILE PRINTS INKED
CRONAR NEGS + POS

(over) NO COVER ✓

Form 10-444 (2/62)

* IN SMITHSONIAN

HISTORIC AMERICAN BUILDINGS SURVEY

vation, sections). 2 vols, Smithsonian Institution Field Study in Industrial Archeology conducted in co-operation with Historic American Buildings Survey (1965, including 8 ext. photos, 32 int. photos, 84 photos of machinery, 2 photos of manufactured motor and current wheel, 6 miscellaneous photocopies of old views, etc.; 67 data pages); copies of records in these two volumes available through Smithsonian Institution (Div. of Mechanical and Civil Engineering).

Card prepared August, 1969.